

Personalization, a model for quality education

NEUS SANMARTÍ

"There should be basic minimums established for everyone trying to get each student to be able to go deeper into specific aspects."

CÉSAR COLL

"It is education that is personalized; learning, on the other hand, is personal because it is meaningful to them; it is relevant to them."

PAULINA BÁNFALVI

"We need to understand the learner profile in all its complexity and respond by bringing the curriculum and their interests coincide at a meeting point."

ANTONIO BERNAL

"Changes are very complex and must be prevented from ending up with the burnout of the people who are trying to implement them."

CORAL REGÍ

"The creation of personal links between teachers and students must become a reality and their personal growth must be accompanied."
