

Global Education

1

Examine issues of local, global and cultural significance

People who critically reflect on a global issue

2

Understand and appreciate the perspectives and worldviews of others

People who consider global issues alongside others with multiple points of view

4

Take action for collective well-being and sustainable development

People create opportunities to take informed and thoughtful action and make their voices heard

3

Engage in open and effective interactions across cultures

People interact with others from different cultures